

Carl Luke United Reformed Church - Latest News

Updated on Monday 16th September 2019

Posted on Sunday 27th January 2019

Worship on Sunday featured a short, dramatic film made by the United Reformed Church entitled "Longing to Belong". The film tells the story of Mandy's love and appreciation for her grandmother, Agatha who arrived in the UK from the Caribbean in 1948, and who had to deal with loss, prejudice and racism in her struggle for equality.

Posted on Friday 18th January 2019

The young people of Carl Luke United Reformed Church have raised £100 for Simon Community Scotland through making and selling hand-made Christmas cards this year. This project was chosen by the young people in response to a challenge from the Synod of Scotland to raise money for the homeless.

Posted on Monday 7th January 2019

The United Reformed Church welcomed worshippers from Kirkton, St John's and St Andrew's churches on Sunday as the churches celebrated Epiphany together. The service was led by Rev David Coleman, chaplain to Eco Congregation Scotland. David stressed the importance of taking action now if we are to save the world from the devastating effects of climate change. As part of the worship, an epiphany hymn recently written by David received its world premiere.